Mrs. Clemmie Allen, Active Cotton Picker at Age 96

Eastern Reflector, Nov. 20, 1914

Mrs. Clemmie ALLEN of Pitt County, who unveiled the Confederate monument at Pitt county the other day (Nov. 18th) on the court house square at Greenville, also performed another remarkable achievement. Mrs. ALLEN, aided by her daughter, Mrs. HART, this fall picked the seed cotton from their field which a 550-pound bale was ginned. Mr. J. H. COBB of R. F. D. No. 1, Greenville wrote us a letter stating that on November 12, 1914, he ginned a bale of cotton for Mrs. ALLEN. She is ninety-six years of age and, as may be gathered from the above mentioned exploit, is very active for her age. She has a daughter living with her 71 years old.

Falkland Pitt County North Carolina
December 26th 1864

Secretary of War;
Honored Sir;

We the subscribers, make a humble petition to you for the exemption of Robert H. PARKER from service. He was one among the gallant first to volunteer in defense of his country, & served faithfully; participated in the many battles in Virginia; but in 1862, at the battle of Sharpsburg Md, he received a severe wound, which has deprived our country of his valuable services since. Though he has not been idle, but has labored diligently for the soldiers' wives & widows. There is a large scope of country in the county, in which the women are entirely dependent on the said R. H. PARKER for the necessities of life. He makes our shoes, has our bread ground for us free of charge, & is a protector to us; finally there is nothing in his power, which is essential to our living, that he denies unto us. The said R. H. PARKER'S father is seventy seven (77) years old, unable to attend to his business, & has furnished six sons to fight in freedom's cause. He also, has two sisters, whose husbands are in service, entirely dependent on him. We beseech you, please in the name of humanity; in the name of widows & orphans; in the name of our beloved husbands, fathers, sons, & brothers, who are bearing the storms of camp life, grant this our humble petition; for we solemnly believe, that if he is taken from us; we shall surely starve. The said Robert H. PARKER belongs to the 27th reg N. C. T. to which regiment he will have to return within a few days. Thinking it may be necessary to state the company & brigade also, to which this individual belongs inserted & Robert H. PARKER Co. E. 27th reg. N. C. T. Cook's Brigade}

Painter Club of Washington, NC, 1834

Tarboro Free Press, Fri., Sept. 26, 1834

A young man named THOMAS, belonging to an association called the Painter Club, at Washington, N. C., was lately murdered by a man named WILLIS. The object of the Club was to besmear and paint all drunkards found in the streets. It appears WILLIS, who was a man of property was lately discovered in that situation in the streets by THOMAS, who immediately coated him with a dose of asafetida. WILLIS went home, had his gun, which was out of order, repaired by the gun smith, and returned and sought out THOMAS, whom he deliberately shot dead.

Argent Adams Letter, 1855

This letter was contributed by Mrs. Henrietta H. Cragon, of Dallas, Texas. According to information on the family supplied by Mrs. Cragon, the letter was written by Argent Adams, b. ca. 1825 (dau. of David Adams and Argent Chapman) of Swift Creek, Pitt County, on Dec. 17, 1855 to her nephew, Furnafold Adams (b. Dec. 22, 1834 in Pitt Co., d. Dec. 11, 1862 near Barton, Colbert Co., AL) son of Bryan Adams and first wife, Rittie Smith (dau. of Henry Smith and Sally Cannon). Furnafold's brother, Lewis Bryan Adams (b. Oct. 30, 1837 in Pitt Co., d. 1928 in Tishomingo Co., MS) is the Lewis Bryan mentioned in the letter. Furnafold Adams enlisted in the 4th Alabama Cavalry in Sept. 1862, along with his brother, Lewis Bryan Adams. According to family tradition they were with a scouting party, were spotted by Union soldiers, shots were fired and furnafold fell off his horse near a house. Several days later Lewis Bryan made his way back to the site of the encounter, talked to the residents of the house. They told him that Furnafold had died and they buried him in their garden. Some years later family members searched for that house again but never found it.

R. L. Nichols Mother Nearly Killed, 1897

Eastern Reflector, Fri., Feb. 12, 1897

Mr. R. L. NICHOLS, of Beaver Dam township, tells of a narrow escape his mother had a few days ago from serious if not fatal injury. Mrs. NICHOLS went to the well to draw a bucket of water. The bucket was fastened to an old fashioned sweep, and in lowering it the sweep broke, one end narrowly missing her head. Fortunately the falling sweep just grazed her left shoulder and arm and her injury was only slight. Had the sweep struck her on the head no doubt it would have killed her.

The Three Ross Brothers, 1890

Eastern Reflector, Wed., April 30, 1890

At the last monthly meeting of Briery Swamp Church, second Saturday and Sunday in this month, three brothers occupied the pulpit which we venture is an instance seldom occurring anywhere. They were Messers. W. A. ROSS, ("Uncle Alfred" as many love to call him) J. L. ROSS and S. R. ROSS. Only the two first named are regularly ordained preachers, but the other sometimes talks at meetings, the church giving him liberty to exercise his gifts. The Reflector does not believe three better men than these three brothers can be found. Elder Alfred ROSS is near if not quite 70 years old, and has been preaching about 40 years. Few men are better preserved at his age than he. Several churches are served by him and he preaches many times a month. Elder John ROSS is perhaps a little more than 60 years old and has been preaching about 20 years. Besides preaching several times each month he is an extensive farmer. Mr. Sam ROSS is about 55 years old and has been exercising his gifts only a year or so. He is also a very large farmer and a man of much influence in his section. These men are held in the highest esteem wherever they are known, and the Reflector wishes them many years of usefulness yet before they go "to enter that rest prepared for the people of God."

Mrs. Sue Beddard, Lifesaver, 1915

Eastern Reflector, March 26, 1915

John BURNEY, colored, tells us that he was felling timbers and his saw became entangled, tree fell and saw was hurled around striking him on his arm laying the bone bare. Being a strong man physically, hurried to Littlefield where Mrs. Sue BEDDARD keeps a store, she having strong nerve, seated him on a cracker box, took a needle and a spool of thread and sewed it up without use of athenics, and John is doing fine, and says any community is blessed that has Mrs. Sue Beddard in it.

State of Tennessee
Williamson County }

On this 6th day of September 1832 personally appeared in open court before me Thomas Stuart presiding Judge of the circuit court of Williamson County of Law and Equity of State of Tennessee now sitting, Jacob GREMMER, a resident of Williamson County Tennessee aged 77 years who being first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the provisions of act of Congress passed 7th June 1832:

That he entered the service of the United States under the following named officers & served as herein stated.

I was residing in Pitt County North Carolina, when I first entered the service as a volunteer into Captain STANCEL'S company We were marched from Pitt County in the time I do not recollect to Wilmington N Carolina where we rendezvoused and General Simpson commanding the North Carolina Militia took command of us. Here we lay for further orders until my tour of three months, for which I had volunteered, expired. I got a discharge signed by my captain which is lost. I recollect none of the subordinate officers in this company but Ensign George FORTNER. I then returned home to Pitt County where I stayed until my next tour.

My next tour was a tour of six months which commenced on 10th of November 1779 I entered as a volunteer into Capt. CANNON'S company Seth STAFFORD Lieutenant John PERY Ensign. We marched from Kingston where we had rendezvoused to the ten mile house in South Carolina, General Bryant taking command of us at Kingston. The Col of the regiment to which Captain BRYANT'S company was attached was by the name of Smith. In our March to the ten mile house we joined Gen ASH with a body of troops. The troops with whom I served were called out for the purpose of protecting Charleston, but when we arrived at Charleston, it appeared that the British had turned their forces upon Augusta and Georgia Gen LINCOLN then in the command of the Southern Army ordered Gen ASH and his troops to go to the support of Augusta. We then marched from Charleston to savannah river which we crossed at Augusta. We then marched down the river to Bryer creek where we encamped. We soon after found that the Bridge over that creek had been set on fire by the British and was burning down. Then the British came down upon our backs and compeled us to battle We were defeated and completely routed. A few including myself under the lieutenant and ensign of Capt CANNON'S company, retreated to Puryborough where Gen LINCOLN then lay with his army. We remained with him until my six months tour was out. During the time Gen LINCOLN marched from Puryborough to Black swamp in South Carolina where I received my discharge on the 10th of May 1780 signed by General BRYANT I expect. I returned home where I remained until Gen GATES appointed to the command of the Southern Army marched towards Camden. There was two companies raised in Pitt County one of horse and the other of foot. I volunteered into the foot, Commanded by Capt John HODGE. We marched from Pitt County about the 1st of August 1780 towards Camden expecting to join Gates about that Place. But he was defeated before we joined him. We then turned and went to Charlotte Mecklenburgh County, N Carolina where the wounded that escaped at GATES defeat had been sent. We staid here some time being joined by some of the county men, skirmishing with Brittish. We then marched to the Adkin [Yadkin] River, Island Ford 7 miles from Salsbury. Here my tour of three months expired and we marched home and I received a discharge signed by my capt. which I left in my father's desk in North Carolina.

I was born in Pitt County North Carolina 1756 where I remained until I came to this country in 1813 and settled in Davidson County Tennessee where I lived nearly two years; at the end of which time I moved to Williamson County where I have been living ever since and now live I have no other record of my age than that in my fathers family Bible which I presume is in North Carolina I have no documentary evidence of my service except those stated which is lost. I know of no person in this country who can certify to my services as stated. I am acquainted with Robert C FOSTER Garner MCCONICO? Thomas D PORTER, George PEAY and Thomas PEAY who can certify to my Character and having been in the service during the revolution; and to my veracity & etc.

I hereby relinquish every claim whatever except the present to a pension or annuity and declare my name is not on the pension roll of any agency of any state. I was acquainted with Gen LINCOLN General ASH, General BRYANT and Colonel SMITH.

Sworn to in open Court, 6 Sept. 1832.

P. HAY, Clk. & etc.}

Jacob (his mark) GRIMMER

We, Garner MCCONICO and Thomas D PORTER clergymen residents in Williamson County Tennessee and Robert C FOSTER, George PEAY & Thomas PEAY and Samuel PEAY residents of the same county and State do hereby certify that we are well acquainted with Jacob GREMMER, who has subscribed and sworn to the above declaration. that we believe him to be 77 years of age; that he is reputed and believed in ...[nothing more]

Mrs. Isabella Moore Family, 1894

Eastern Reflector, Wed., Oct. 10, 1894

Mrs. Isabella, widow of James S. MOORE, in Pactolus township is near 72 years old. She raised twelve children, six boys and six girls, to be grown. Out of that number she has lost only one, the second son, Mc. G., who fell at the charge of Fort Harrison in 1863. About three weeks ago, she with her eleven children came to Greenville and had a family group photograph made. There were six girls viz: Charlotte (Mrs. B. H. HEARNE), Emily (Mrs. David HYMAN), Lissie, Jackie, Ellen and Isabell (Mrs. Jos. FLEMING) and five boys (the sixth being dead.) The boys were G. L., whose wife died some years ago leaving nine children; L. C. (Tuck) who lives near his mother; G. C. (Ned) of Greene county "Streeter Place" fame; Z. L., living with his mother and Zeno, the baby, of Greenville. The four last named are unmarried. Their father was a Democrat in 1828, and none of the six sons have ever voted otherwise. Mrs. MOORE is the grand mother of twenty-four children, and the great grand mother of four. At her advanced age she continues the habit formed in early life of rising at 4 o'clock every morning and takes pleasure in performing her own household work. Pitt county may justly feel proud at having among her citizens such a family as Mrs. MOORE has raised. God bless such noble women! We trust there are yet in store for her many years of peace and joy.

CIVIL WAR VETERANS MEET, 1897

Eastern Reflector, JUNE 2, 1897

A called meeting of Bryan Grimes Camp of Pitt county Confederate Veterans was held at college grounds.
May 29, 1897, Commander E. A. MOYE, presiding. After roll call the following resolution was unanimously adopted: That the time for our annual meeting be on the last Thursday in July of each year; and that the college grounds be the place of meeting until further notice.

On motion a hearty vote of thanks was tendered the King's Weekly, Daily Reflector and Greenville Enterprise for their kindness in gratuitously publishing call for this meeting. No other business appearing the crowd was entertained by Pig FORBES and John PARKER, of Company H, 7th Cavalry, who told of their many hair breadth escapes from the Yankee Cavalry, and in the very midst of their hilarity, that noble old soldier and chief of the dinner committee, Ruel WILLOUGHBY, called the old vets to dinner which was very much enjoyed by all. After dinner they adjourned to meet again at the college grounds, July 29, 1897.

E. A. MOYE, Commander.

B. F. SUGG, Secretary.

State of North Carolina Pitt County
Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions}

On the 6th day of November 1832 personally appeared before the Justices of the court of the Court of Pleas & Quarter Sessions now sitting John KINSAUL of Pitt County North Carolina aged Seventy two years who first being duly sworn according to law doth upon his oath made the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the act of Congress passed June 7, 1832. That he was born in Virginia and entered the service in the state troops as volunteer under James HERRIN Captain, Wm BOWERS Lieutenant and Needham WHITFIELD ensign some four or five months (as well as he recollects) before Independence was declared. He enlisted for twelve months. He then resided as he does now in Pitt County NoCa and his company formed at Greenville the county town and marched for Columbia So.Ca and proceeded about 100 miles when their orders were countermanded and they were ordered to Fort Caswell near Newbern NoCa and was there (he thinks) when war was declared. At Fort Caswell he joined his regiment HERITAGE Colonel CASWELL General. From Fort Caswell he marched up the country as far as Smithfield Johnson Co. NoCa where he was stationed for the balance of the Term for which he enlisted. This was his first term of service. His second term of service was about the Second year of the war when he volunteered & entered a regiment at Halifax NoCa for Three months – HUNTER Colonel Theophilus THOMAS Captain and served out the whole time there.—About the close of the war he again entered the service under Godfrey STANCIL Captain Abram HARDY Lieutenant and Henry MOORE Ensign having enlisted for Three months. His company formed at Greenville marched to Nash Court House and there joined his regiment HERITAGE Colonel and NIXON Lieut. Colonel. From Nash Court House he marched with his regiment to Harrisburg Va where the Captains company to which he belonged were detached for the purpose of conducting and guardin safely home Colonels CALFE and WADE of Georgia; who when Cornwallis was ravaging the southern country had fled with their moveables and now wished to return. In which service he marched as far as the Pedee at Cheraw SoCa where he was attacked and defeated at night by the Scottish Tories then residing in that section—thence he returned home to recruit and then repaired as ordered to Kingston NoCa and where he was employed for the balance of the term in the Scouting Service about Neuse River. His term expired he returned home and staid one week when he enlisted again for three months—repaired to Greenville under Captain George FORTNER, Lieut. Evan JONES, Col. James GORHAM and was off and on at Greenville and Kinston with his company waiting orders from Genl GREENE who was pursuing Cornwallis through the up country which orders however never arrived and staid at the places aforesaid until the war was closed by the Surrender of Cornwallis, upon which event he was discharged just three days before the term he enlisted would properly have expired. He has lost all his discharges—never expecting any further compensation for his services--- He hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to any annuity or a pension except the present and declares that his name is not on the pension-roll of any state or agency of any state whatever.

Bethel Ban on Selling Cigarettes, 1897

King's Weekly, Greenville, NC, June 4, 1897

“Progress.....The town of Bethel, in this county, has an ordinance prohibiting the sale of cigarettes. It reads: “It is hereby declared a nuisance, and unlawful, for any person or persons to sell, trade or barter off cigarettes in the town of Bethel, under penalty of Five Dollars, for each violation of this section.” That is a good ordinance, but how will it prevent the use of Cigarettes? We fail to see. It may in some degree abate the nuisance, but fails to be broad enough to prevent their use. If other towns and places would pass an ordinance and we could get a State law to the same effect, it would be good. Nevertheless Bethel may be credited with good intentions and we hope it may work out much good.”

Frizzle vs. Patrick, NC Supreme Court Case, 1863

William R. FRIZZLE owned a tract of land in Pitt County on the n/s of Contentnea Creek and on March 4, 1850 Warren T Frizzle bought a tract of land in Greene County on the s/s of Contentnea Creek

On June 15, 1850, Joel PATRICK and Lewis B. PUGH purchased a small piece of land on both sides of Little Contentnea Creek near Scuffleton in Pitt County and desired to erect a public grist and saw mill. They applied to persons living around and near for consent since the stream was used for transportation of produce raised along the stream. PATRICK and PUGH said they would build and be kept for free use a large flat in the mill pond for transporting of produce down the mill stream and they would compensate for flooding of lands.

They were given consent and in 1850 a mill house was built. The pond flooded, they neglected to build a flat and they refused to pay damages for overflowing.

In 1857, Lewis B. PUGH sold his interest in the mill to Joel PATRICK, because every year the area was getting stagnant and sickly. The mosquitoes were so bad it rendered the homes in the area intolerable and by 1858 the sickness (diphtheria) and mortality in the neighborhood was the worst ever known. It was the opinion of medical gentlemen that it was the mill pond. There were at least 40 deaths in 1858 in a circumference of 6 miles around the mill pond. On the night of Feb. 18, 1861 the mill house was burned down by an incendiary. The mill was not ponded that summer and the area returned to being healthy.

In the Fall of 1861, Joel Patrick wanted to rebuild the mill and began to do so, but was stopped by his neighbors. The local citizens feeling it was dangerous, endeavored to buy him out. PATRICK then jacked up the price for the mill land. People kept on burning down his progress in rebuilding the mill.

At this time, Joel PATRICK was a cripple for life and couldn't walk, getting around on crutches.

About Major Reading Blount

Farmer & Mechanic, Raleigh, NC, June 24, 1885

Washington, N. C., June 10th 1885—I have seen an extract from your paper stating that Mr. Jonathan HAVENS informed you that Major Reading BLOUNT was born in Bertie county and lived and died at Tranter's creek, this county. Mr. HAVENS is mistaken as to his birthplace. Major Reading BLOUNT was born at Blount Hall, Pitt county, 22d February 1757. Blount Hall had then been the home stead of the BLOUNTS for a number of years, and is still the property of a BLOUNT. Major Reading BLOUNT was a member of the Society of the Cincinnati and his certificate of membership was held by my eldest brother, Reading L. MYERS. It was taken from his room by some one immediately after the occupation of Washington by the Union troops in March, 1862. Major Reading BLOUNT has neither son or daughter living, but has five grandsons and a number of great grandsons and daughters living. I, one of his grandsons, will take great pleasure in reviving the order of The Cincinnati in this State and have no doubt but that the rest of the grandsons will do the same.

Reddick Knox (1790-1858) of Georgia

The following biography appeared in the History of Ware County, Ga., by Laura Singleton Walker, published in 1934 by J. W. Burke Co., Macon, Ga. According to other information, Reddick Knox (1790-1858) and Ruhama Taylor Knox (1791-1870, after the Aug. 24, 1870 census) are both buried in the Knox Cemetery, south of Lulaton, Ga. Reddick Knox was a private during the Indian Wars, and was assigned to Captain James Walker's Company in 1838.

Contributed by Roger Kammerer.

James KNOX was born in Wayne County (now Brantley) Georgia, Oct. 12th, 1831. He was the son of Reddick KNOX who was born in Pitt County, North Carolina, where his parents, who were of Welsh and Scottish ancestry settled on coming to America. Brought up in his native state, he migrated to Georgia in 1826, he and his wife and three children making the removal with teams. At the end of two years of frontier life, he and his family went back to their old home and after two years stay they returned to Georgia in 1830 settling on the site they had chosen on their first trip. Buying a tract of wild land, he established a farm and there spent the remainder of his life.

He married Ruhama TAYLOR, who was born in North Carolina, and lived to the ripe old age of 83 years, and died on the home farm in Wayne County in 1850.

Capt. James Knox grew to manhood beneath the parental roof, and upon the breaking out of the War between the States offered his services to the Confederacy. Being commissioned captain of Company D, Twenty-sixth Georgia Volunteer Infantry he went with his regiment to Virginia, and as a part of the "army of Northern Virginia" he was under the command of "Stonewall" JACKSON. After the death of Gen. JACKSON his regiment was put under the command of Gen. Robert E. LEE, where he served until the surrender of Appomattox Court House when he received his parole. During his service in Virginia, which lasted about three and one-half years, he was at the front in many engagements of importance, and only suffered once from a shell wound. After receiving his parole at the close of the war, Capt. KNOX turned his face homeward, and walked, barefooted, the greater part of the distance. He resumed his former occupation, that of farming and timber business with Burnt Fort as the market for timber. He also carried on a large merchantile business at Lulaton, Wayne county, which was the only business of the kind in a large area of the county.

In 1879 Captain KNOX, with his family, came to Waycross, which was then a quiet village of about five hundred souls, and, having opened a general store, the second of its kind in the town, was here a resident until his death Aug. 6th 1899.

Captain Knox married Mary Jane JONES, who was born in what is now Pierce County, near Big Creek, not far from the birthplace of her father, James JONES. Her paternal grandfather, was born in North Carolina, of Welsh ancestry, and came to what is now Pierce County, Georgia, in pioneer times, when the Indians made such frequent raids upon the newcomers that it was necessary to have in each county one or more large log forts to which the settlers might flee for safety when the redskins became too troublesome. Securing title to extensive tracts of land, he carried on farming with slave labor until his death. James JONES, the father of Captain KNOX'S wife, became owner of a large plantation near the east end of the Okefinokee swamp, and was there profitably engaged in farming and stock-raising the remainder of his life, passing away in 1850 being murdered by a slave belonging to one of his neighbors.

The maiden name Mrs. KNOX's mother was Sarah MIZELL, daughter of Jesse MIZELL. She spent her brief life in this immediate section Georgia, dying in early womanhood. Mrs. KNOX survived her husband several years, her death occurring May 20th 1907 at the advanced age of 75. Mrs. KNOX was a member of the Episcopal Methodist Church.

Capt. and Mrs. KNOX reared nine children, as follows: Sarah, who married Rev. John STRICKLAND; Kate, deceased, was the wife of J. L. COURSON; J. Franklin KNOX, deceased, married Mollie WAINRIGHT; Mary, died at the age of twenty-five years; Dora, wife of Andrew J. MILLER; Belle C., wife of Dr. Gustavus P. FOLKS; William L., married Mrs. Beulah O'HARA; Edward W., deceased, married Rebecca WILCOX; James Jr, deceased, married Nettie CHASTAIN.

JOYNER HISTORY BY GRIGG TYSON, 1897

This is a typed copy of a letter written in 1897 by Grigg T. Tyson, which was sent to Huel Benjamin Joyner, son of Huel A. Joyner, of Washington Co., Georgia. Found in papers of Rev. Raymond Tyson. Related information can be found in the Anderson-Joyner Bible Records, Aug. 1999 Pitt County Genealogical Quarterly.

Friend and Cousin:

Yours to hand - was glad to hear of Joyner relations in Georgia. I guess that I can interest you by giving you a history of the Joyner family from Colonial days.

John JOYNER, the one first known of in Pitt county, came from East Virginia on the Megaring River as near as I can ascertain about 1730 or 1740 - bought land and settled on Contentnea Creek one mile from the village of what is now Farmville (it was founded in 1867.) His wife's maiden name was Annie ALBERSON. His children were Abraham, Isaac, Jacon, and John, Elizabeth, Sarah, Mary and Annie. He died in 1782 and was buried on the bank of Contentnea Creek, the spot can yet be pointed out.

Abraham, his son first married Kezira HEMBY, and settled about two miles from his father on Branch where Blaney Joyner's widow now resides. When well advanced in years his first wife died, leaving children Andy, Aaron, Amos, Isac, Dicy, Howell, Salley, and Abraham. His last wife was a TULL and lived in Lenoir County near Kinston. About 1820 he moved to Georgia taking with him Salley and Abraham his first wife's children. Abraham returned to North Carolina.

Soon after the close of the Revolution, Moses TYSON agreed to give land for a church and Abraham JOYNER was to be its Pastor. A Primitive Baptist Church still stands on or near the spot known as Tyson Church. But little has been known of the Georgia wing of the Joyners since going to that State.

Now to show up my Joyner Blood (Which I always feel proud of) Annie a daughter of John JOYNER above mentioned was my father's (John Joyner TYSON) mother. Amos JOYNER, son of above mentioned was my mother's father. Elizabeth above mentioned married Moses TYSON (who gave land for Tyson Church) Her daughter Elizabeth married Amos JOYNER. Mother's Father married her first Cousin so you see I carry three strains of the good blood. I call it good blood because they merit it. The Joyners here are and have been for these 125 years a sober, moral and industrious law abiding people. Some are poor while others are fairly wealthy and some have set in the Council of State.

Another point I mention is that the lands of the first John JOYNER still remain in the blood and the larger part by the name. My Grandfather, Amos JOYNER, was born in the year 1782 before his Father Abraham had returned from the War of the Revolution. He died in September 1868, having never had a law suit or been indicted in Court, yet he owned quite a number of slaves and a large farm. My Mother, Laney daughter of aforesaid Amos JOYNER was married to my father, John Joyner TYSON (her second cousin) in 1834 and settled on a part of the Joyner lands in the old house built and resided in by the first John JOYNER, it having been torn down and moved out on the main road, and in that house I first saw the light of Day May 2nd, 1854. My father died in 1868 - Mother survived him until 1879. I have three brothers living, Joab, Aaron and Henry also two sisters, Emily and Delpha, all of which are married. I have a wife and five children, the eldest is named John Joyner TYSON. I wish to know if the family Bible of Abraham JOYNER is still preserved. Can you give me any official information about his being a soldier of the Revolution. Did he get a pension in his later days. I live on Contentnea Creek six miles below the old Joyner settlement. My family of Tyson, their settlement in the County dates back to 1735. Please give me the Post Office of some Tyson's in you State and see if I cant throw some light on those Ancestors. There is but few of what we call the old Joyners living. Jacob JOYNER about 70 or 75 years lives near Farmville. Mrs. Martha BELCHER, whose maiden name was JOYNER, Age 65, Mary ANDERSON, age 70, Rob JOYNER, age 60 and 5 or 6 others. What we call the old Joyners is Grandchildren to Abraham JOYNER, the preacher.

Twenty years ago a goodly number of them lived. I tell you the seed of Abraham is spread abroad in the Land almost as they were of Abraham of old from which the Jews sprang. I am called a talking man (not a penman). However, I'll write freer when we get better acquainted. Mrs. TYSON says dinner is ready. I'll close - write again to your N.C. Friend.

Respt. Grigg Thompson Tyson

P.S. My ink is about out - this is the last of a pint bought about five years ago I wrote on book in lap to be by fire.

HEARNE FAMILY, 1912

In 1907, William T. Hearne published the Hearne Family History. This information is taken from his booklet, Addenda Hearne History, August 1912, published by the Examiner Print Co., Independence, Mo.
From the research of Allen Churchill.

John HEARNE was born in Pitt County, N. C., February 14, 1804, and died May 21, 1861. He married Miss Pennetta Ann Emeliza ROBINSON, January 28, 1833. She was born October 17, 1816, and died June 3, 1870. Children: Sylvester Hearne, born June 14, 1835, died January 6, 1861; Jackie Ann Eliza Hearne, born September 28, 1836; Orlando Hearne, born April 5, 1838; Mary Frances Hearne, born December 19, 1839; Reuben Marcellus Hearne, born June 12, 1842; Benjamin Howell Hearne, born February 28, 1845; John L. F. Hearne, born October 2, 1849, and Wm. R. Augustus Hearne, born April 30, 1851. These last two were very devoted brothers and were not long separated in death. The elder died October 29, 1866, and the younger followed next day.

Jackie A. E. HEARNE married, March 1857, Blaney JOYNER, and they had one child, Joseph Blaney JOYNER, who died July 25, 1894, age nineteen years. Mr. Blaney JOYNER died in 1895 and his wife died August 13, 1901.

Orlando HEARNE never married. He was a faithful member of the Methodist church and died December 30, 1884.

Mary Frances HEARNE married Arthur FORBES and died July 4, 1874. She had one son, John Arthur FORBES.

Rueben Marcellus HEARNE, entered the Confederate army when eighteen years old, and served a faithful soldier to the end of the war. On June 29, 1862, while engaged in making a charge on McClellan's army in front of a battery, he was struck in the head and severely wounded by a piece of shell, which disabled him from field duty the balance of the war. On April 4, 1867, he married Miss Mattie R. HOOKER and settled in Greenville, N. C., and engaged in merchandising. Children: William Augustus Bernard Hearne, born July 5, 1869; Mary Ada Hearne, born September 3, 1872, and Mattie Marcella Hearne, born October 28, 1874.

William A. B. HEARNE married Miss Louisa Star MAY, January 26, 1904. Children: Lucille Hearne, born July 6, 1906; Marcellus Bernard Hearne, born August 14, 1907; William Hearne, born August 17, 1909, and Champ Poe Hearne, born December 7, 1910.

Mary Ada HEARNE married Joseph Edward SUGG, November 5, 1900, and he died ten days after. There is a sad and pathetic romance here: Mr. Sugg and Ada Hearne were engaged to be married and she came to help nurse him when he became seriously ill with typhoid fever and when it became apparent he must die they were married. She is now living a widow in Greenville, N. C. Her sister, Mattie Marcella Hearne is unmarried.

Reuben Marcellus Hearne's wife died in 1877, in Florida, where he had taken her in the hope of prolonging her life. October 18, 1888, he married his second wife, Miss Mary Acca WARREN, and they have one child, Edward Warren Hearne, born May, 1892, who is now a student in King's Business College, Raleigh, N. C. The family all live in Greenville, N. C.

Benjamin Howel HEARNE, son of John and Pennetta HEARNE, married Miss Charlotte E. MOORE, February 26, 1867. Children: John Linwood Hearne, born December 1, 1867; Emma Estell Hearne, born April 21, 1869; Isabella Augustus Hearne, born March 13, 1873; Mack Orlando Hearne, born April 21, 1875; Cotta Geraldine Hearne, born June 28, 1879; Closs Wightman Hearne, born February 28, 1884; and Leland Leroy Hearne, born April 17, 1889.

John Linwood HEARNE, born 1867, married Miss Effie Geneva MORRIS, April 14, 1896, and they have one son, John Linwood Hearne, Jr., born _____. They live in Farbow, N. C.

Emma Estell HEARNE married John Forbes EVANS, January 30, 1890. Children: James Otis Evans, Arthur Kennedy Evans, Marvis Belle Evans, Donovan P. Evans, Hazel Gray Evans, Christine White Evans, Cattie Lewis Evans and John Linwood Evans.

Isabella Augustus HEARNE married George Edward HARRIS, March 11, 1891. Children: Nina Belle Harris, born January 1, 1892; and George Edward Harris, born January 23, 1902.

Catta Geraldine HEARNE married James L. STARKEY, June 14, 1899. Children: James Robert Starkey, born December 22, 1902; Charlotte Starkey, born August 5, 1908, and Marshall L. Starkey, born July 19, 1911.

I learned of a family of Hearnese who lived near Gum Swamp, Pitt County, N. C., on the north side of Tar River, and one of them was Rufus K. HEARNE, a Free Will Baptist minister. Their family records were destroyed by fire a few years ago and I insert here what data I can obtain.

Howell HEARNE, born in Pitt County N. C., October 17, 1770, married Elmina RANDOLPH, April 10, 1792. She was born April 10, 1771. Children: Elmina Hearne, born March 2, 1793; Violetta Hearne, born November 1, 1816; Rufus K. Hearne, born October 20, 1819, and married Miss Lucetta RIVES, January 5, 1846. She was born September 24, 1821. Children: Howel R. Hearne, born September 24, 1847; John William Hearne, born March 10, 1850; Susan C. Hearne, born October 2, 1852; Virginia A. and Fannie R. Hearne, twins, born August 4, 1854; Rufus B. Hearne, born January 21, 1857; Sallie J. Hearne, born March 2, 1859; Violetta E. Hearne, born February 4, 1864, and she died June 20, 1881. Howel R. Hearne, died January 2, 1892. Rufus K. Hearne died March 3, 1894, and Fannie R. Hearne died March 2, 1909. Rufus B. Hearne lives at Vanceboro, N. C., and is unmarried. Near this family lives a Mr. James HEARNE and family, who are relatives, but I have been unable to obtain the record, etc.

BIBLE RECORDS

Osborne Nichols Bible

Many years ago I was given a bad photocopy of this original bible record. I believe the family is from King and Queen Co., Va. then to Bertie Co., NC. In the Peoples Press and Wilmington Advertiser, Jan. 11, 1839 is found an advertisement stating: that Mrs. M. A. Theus, Late Miss Nichols, of Savannah, Ga. is the only surviving child of the late Osborne Nichols, formerly of NC, shipcarpenter by trade. She says her father had a brother, Jehu Nichols of Bertie Co., NC, who was very aged. She was looking for any of her relatives. Contributed by Roger Kammerer.
